“Detwiler invokes just the right amount of romanticism: her wolves tussle in the purple rays of a frigid sunrise and dance, silhouetted, in the falling shadows of twilight—but they’re always unmistakably wild. Readers should be captivated by the animals’ resilient joie de vivre as well as by their habitats’ seasonal glories.” —Publishers Weekly

Have you ever wondered....

What it would be like to be a wolf? What would you do in the cold winter months? Where would you sleep? What would you eat? Spend a year in the world of wolves with Scotti Cohn and One Wolf Howls. This adventurous children’s book uses the months of the year and the numbers 1 through 12 to introduce children to the behavior of wolves in natural settings. The lively illustrations of Susan Detwiler complement the rhyming text and bring each month to life. From January to December, howl, frolic, and dance, while learning important lessons page-by-page!

The “For Creative Minds” educational section includes:

- Wolf Communication Matching Activity
- Food for Thought—The Timing of it All
  - Wolf Life Cycle

About the Author and Illustrator

Scotti Cohn is a freelance writer and editor living in central Illinois. She is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators, and the author of five nonfiction books published by The Golden Pequot Press, with a sixth book scheduled for publication by Globe in 2009. One Wolf Howls is Scotti's first book with Arbordale Publishing. Her short stories have appeared in numerous magazines for young people, and her poems about animals have appeared in Highlights for Children and Zootles magazines. Currently, she is working on several picture book ideas along with a fantasy novel for young adults. Scotti has two adult children. She and her husband Ray share their home with five cats. However, Scotti also has a special place in her heart for dogs and their magnificent ancestor, the wolf. Visit Scotti's website for more information, <http://www.scotticohn.com/>.

Susan Detwiler is the illustrator of several books for children, including The First Teddy Bear, The Wonderful Bicycle Parade, and two educational series entitled Reading Roots, Shared Stories. Her artwork has also been used for games, puzzles, advertising, on apparel, on decorative tins, and on many greeting cards. Books have always been a source of joy in her life, and as a child, she particularly loved books with beautiful illustrations. Drawing pictures for a good story is Susan's favorite endeavor. Her artwork is inspired by her love of nature, the various pets in her household, interests in cooking and gardening, and her children and their friends. She lives in Maryland.
